

A)

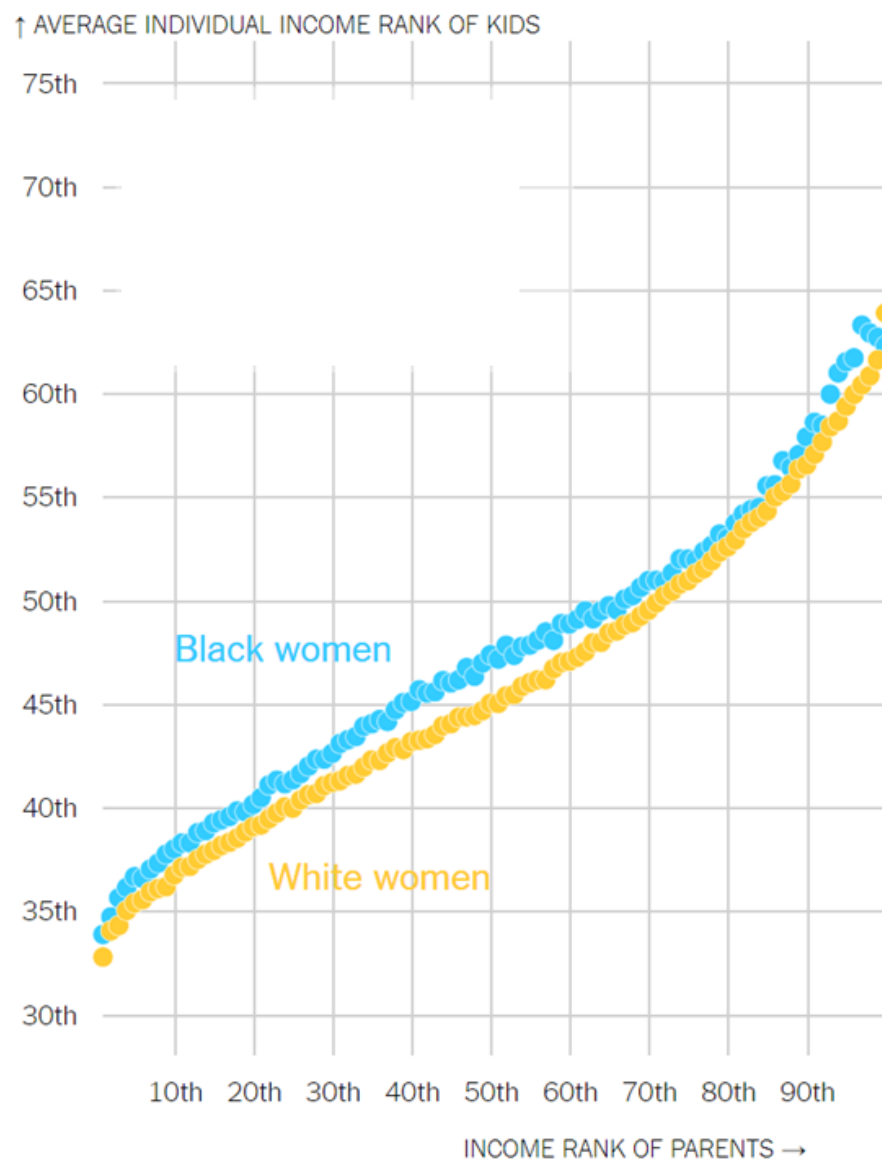

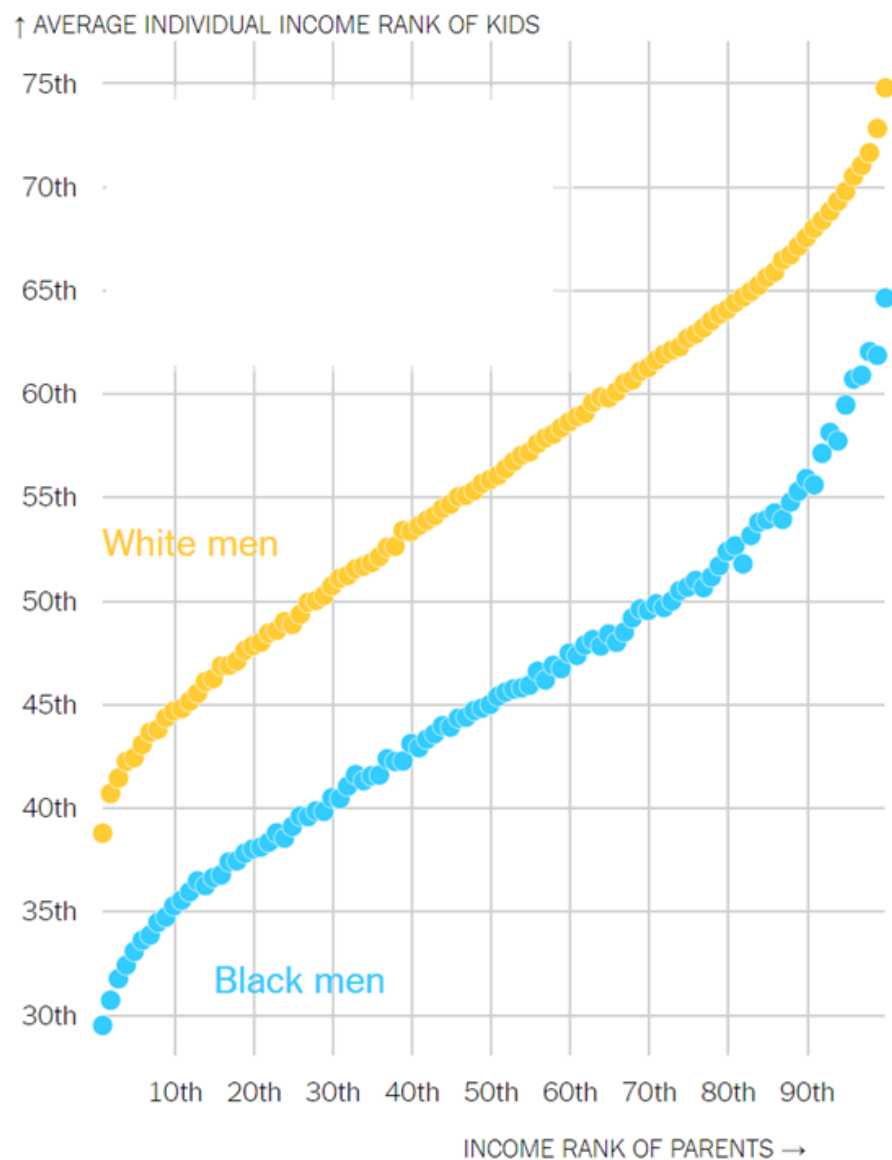

Where today's 25-year-olds went to college, grouped by their parents' income

- Citing evidence in this graphic, provide support for the statement, "Education is the great equalizer in America."
- Citing evidence in this graphic, provide support for the statement, "Education serves merely to perpetuate existing social disparities in America."
- Which of the two statements is MORE correct, based upon evidence in this graphic, and why?

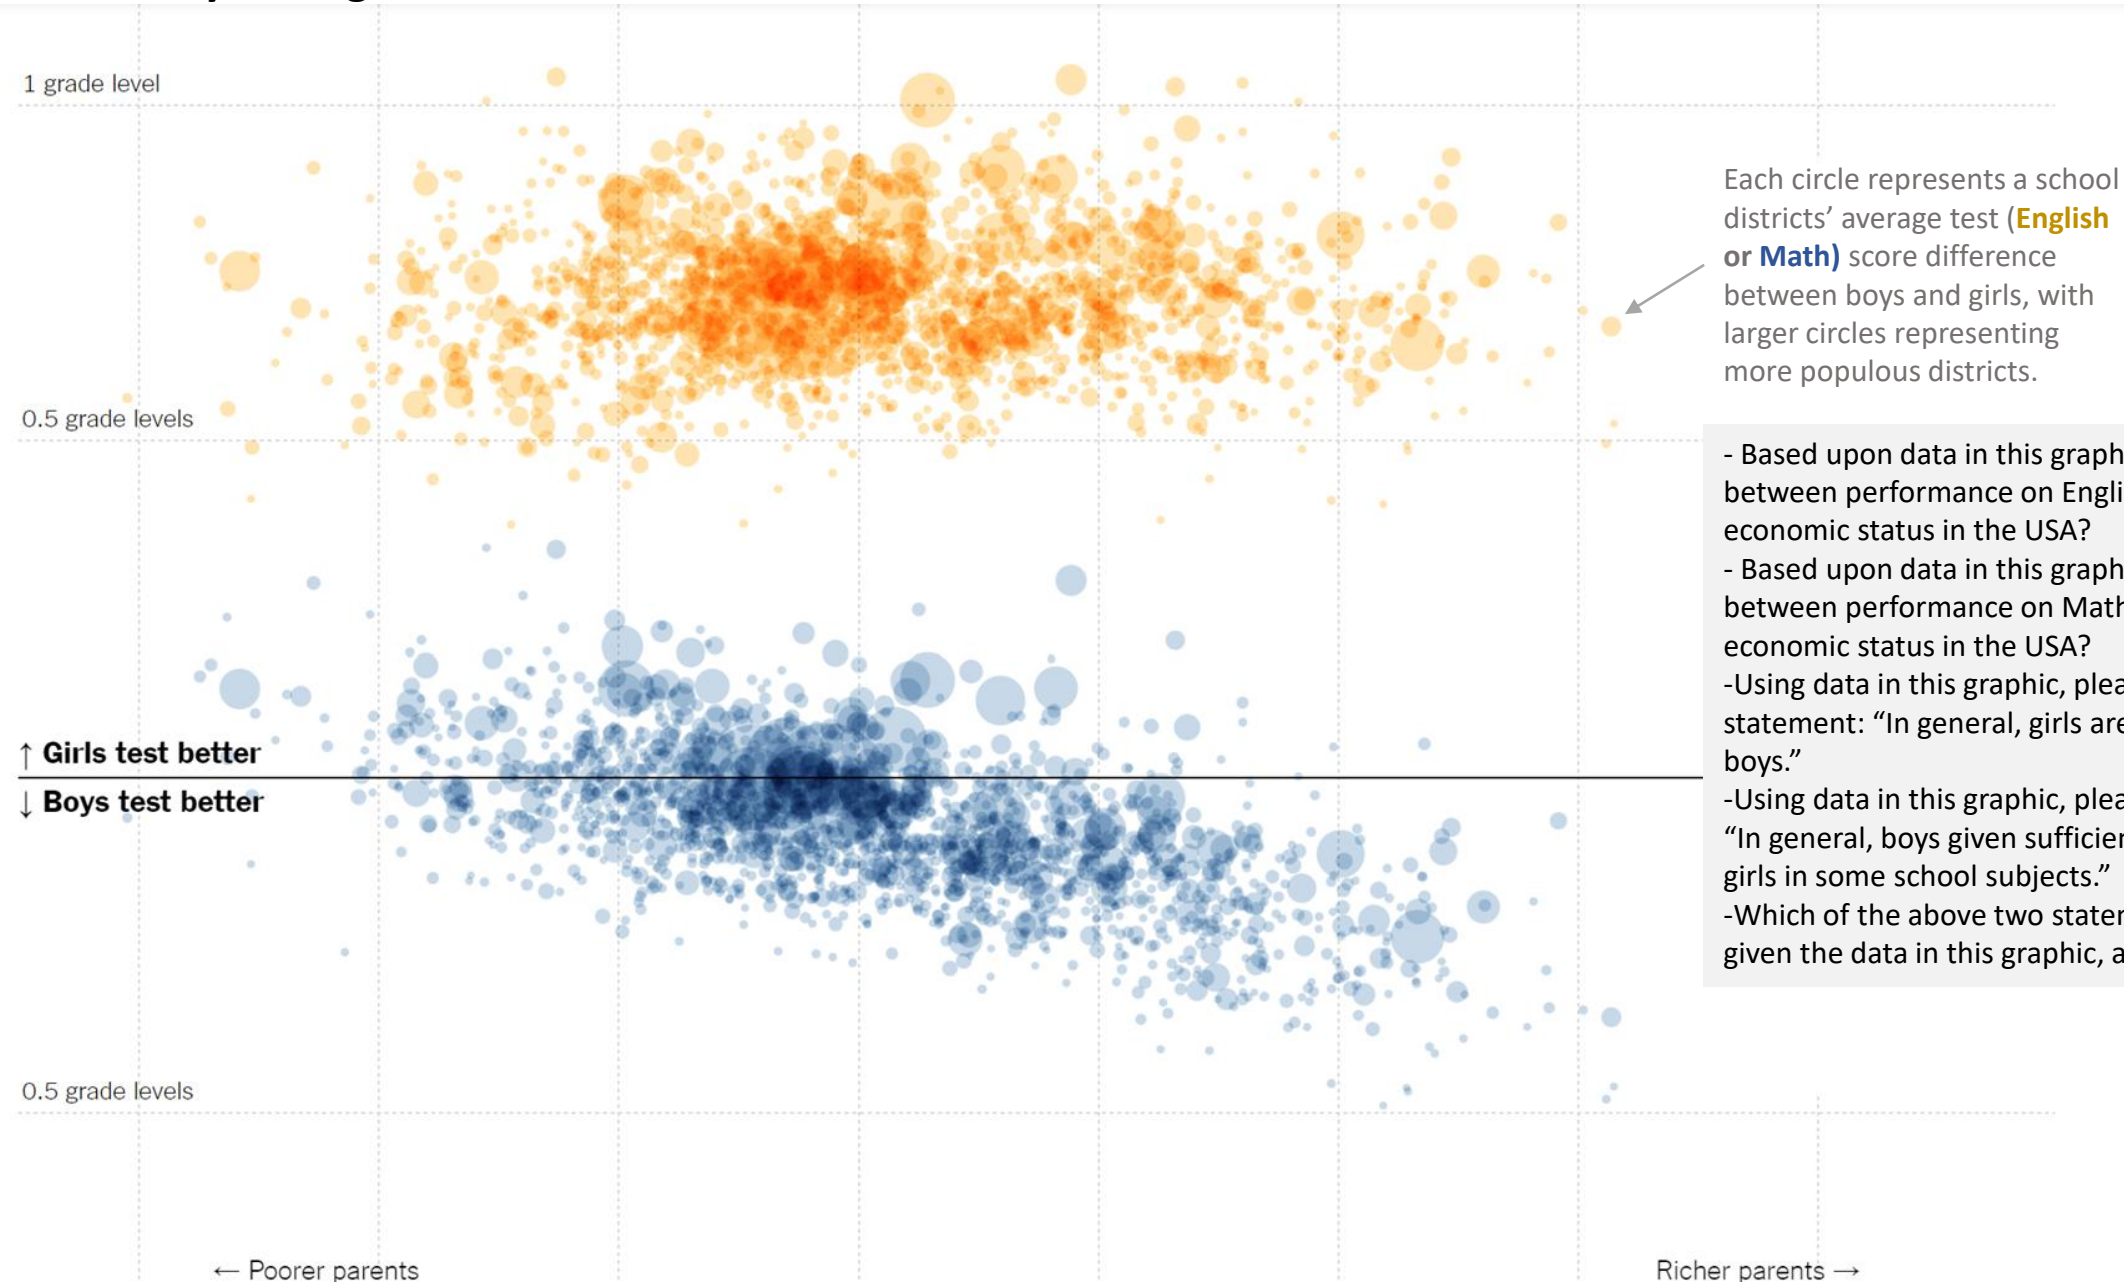

B)

- True or false: Based upon data in this graphic, being born into a wealthy family in the USA guarantees economic success later in life, particularly for white men.
- True or false: Based upon data in this graphic, being born into a poor family in the USA guarantees economic failure later in life, particularly for black men.
- Based upon data in this graphic, what statement (if any) could you make regarding what might account for the average difference in earnings between men and women in the USA?

C) Average Performance by Boys and Girls on Standardized 6th grade English and Math tests, by average Wealth of Families in the School District

- Based upon data in this graphic, what is the relationship between performance on English tests and parents' socio-economic status in the USA?
- Based upon data in this graphic, what is the relationship between performance on Math tests and parents' socio-economic status in the USA?
- Using data in this graphic, please support the following statement: "In general, girls are just better at school than boys."
- Using data in this graphic, please support the statement: "In general, boys given sufficient support will outperform girls in some school subjects."
- Which of the above two statements is MORE correct, given the data in this graphic, and WHY?